

PAA-Lawyers and Hague Center for Law and Arbitration cooperate with each other

PAA-Lawyers and Hague Center for Law and Arbitration (HCLA) signed a memorandum of understanding with respect to provision of legal, consultancy and educational services on October 23, 2016.

HCLA is an expanding network of legal professionals and institutions focused on providing legal, educational and financial knowledge and services to governments, academic forums and international firms that are at the heart of global commerce and trade.

For more information about HCLA and its areas of services, please click here.