

Does the registration of the application for arbitration require any payment?

Yes, organizations and arbitration institutions usually receive fees according to their pre-existing tables for registration of application of arbitration before starting to pursue arbitral affairs.