

International investment

International investment

Investment overseas should be done with due cares to avoid any potential risk. Among other things, one of the most important step of international investment is to negotiate and conclude a practical and useful investment contract which is one of the expertise of the firm offered to the clients. In addition, the firm offers services for legal presence of foreign national and companies in Iran.